

St. John Paul II

St. John Paul II was a Polish pope who loved to travel, write books, and meet young people around the world. He was full of love and compassion, and he was never afraid to live his faith boldly. He told everyone - "Be not afraid!"

