

St Frances Xavier Cabrini

Saint Frances Cabrini was a hard-working woman who left Italy to travel to the United States to help people. She opened 67 hospitals, schools, and orphanages, and she was the first U.S. citizen to become a saint!

