

St Anthony of the Desert

Saint Anthony of the Desert was an Egyptian hermit who sold everything he had so that he could go live in the desert! He ate only bread and water, would stay up all night praying, and fought off demons who came to attack him. He worked hard to serve Jesus and is known as the "Father of All Monks."

