

St Francis of Assisi

Saint Francis of Assisi was the son of a rich, Italian silk merchant who abandoned his rich lifestyle to embrace poverty and live simply for the Lord. He worked hard to spread God's word, and eventually founded the Franciscan Order, one of the largest religious communities in the world!

